Will stay on as caretaker prime minister till a successor is elected

BoJo bows out as UK PM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

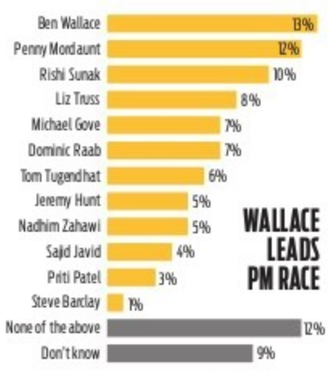
AFTER brazenly trying to hang on to power for a couple of days despite a mass revolt in his parliamentary party, British Prime Minister Boris Johnson announced his resignation on Thursday from the party's leadership to start with.

Standing outside 10, Downing Street, Johnson conceded that his party wanted him gone. "Them's the breaks," he said.

But Johnson wants to stay on as a lame duck prime minister till the party chooses his successor, the timeline for which would be out in a week, he said. But many lawmakers in his Conservative party want him to quit the premier's post immediately.

At last count, about 50 Cabinet secretaries, ministers and lower-level officials had resigned after Johnson conceded on Tuesday that he was less than honest about the appointment of a politician accused of sexual misconduct.

Within just three years in power, the brash, perpetually rumpled, shaggy-haired leader who is often likened to former US President Donald Trump, had to negotiate his way out of frequent messy situations putting a question mark on his integrity.



To his credit, he took Britain out of the European Union, was a good friend of India, managed to contain the Covid pandemic under his watch and aggressively supported Ukraine in its war against Russia.

He was forced to concede defeat on Thursday morning after one of his closest allies, new Treasury chief Nadhim Zahawi, publicly told him to resign for the good of the country.

"In the last few days, I tried to persuade my colleagues that it would be eccentric to change governments when we're delivering so much and when we have such a vast mandate," Johnson said.

Quite a few are vying to succeed him as PM. Among them are former Treasury chief Rishi Sunak, former Health Secretary Sajid Javid, Foreign Secretary Liz Truss, Defence Secretary Ben Wallace and Transport Secretary Grant Shapps. Others like Michael Gove, Matt Hancock and Dominic Raab ruled themselves out of the race. Indian-origin Suella Braverman, UK's attorney general, became the first to launch her leadership bid. She has her roots in Goa.

As for India, the negotiations for the ongoing Free Trade Agreement with the UK are not likely to be impacted. The deadline set for a draft FTA during Johnson's summit talks with Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi in April last was Diwali (October). P12

Woman, 70, locked up in toilet by son for 2 yrs, freed

DIVYA CUTINHO @ Mangaluru

A 70-year-old woman who was locked up by her son and daughter-in-law in a toilet at their house for two years has been rescued with the help of police and an NGO at Bantwal taluk in Dakshina Kannada district. The rescued woman has been identified as Girija, a resident of Karavali site at Kallige Benjanapadav.

Girija had a fall on January 1, 2020, and instead of providing her treatment for her injuries, her son Hariram and daughter-in-law Pooja locked her up in a toilet and even denied her proper food. Pooja also allegedly used to abuse her. A few days ago, a citizen who became suspicious of the couple's treatment towards the elderly woman, informed Senior Citizens' Helpline which works in the district.

Work on upgrading Avenue Road under the Smart City project in progress | LEKSHMI S THOTTUPURATH

Smart City project likely to be completed in 3 weeks

31 roads in CBD completed, only last stretch of Avenue Rd pending

MOHAMMED YACOOB @ Bengaluru

BENGALURU Smart City Project Limited (BSCPL) is expected to officially complete its work in three weeks. Of the 32 roads in Central Business District that were taken for upgradation under the project, 31 have been completed and thrown open for public. Now, only 20% work on the last stretch of Avenue Road is pending.

According to Rajendra Cholan, MD, BSCPL, the Commercial Street incident in which roads which were repaired were damaged following heavy rain last year was a learning experience for the agency. It took up the work on drains and roads in neighbouring streets with precautionary measures to avoid flooding of water.

"The tender for the project was called in 2019 and it got delayed for a year as many contractors were not sure about the execution as this was new. The works began in 2020 and now it will be over. The biggest challenge was work on Avenue Road as the buildings are very old and traffic density is huge. The pipes are very old and are four meters below the earth," said Cholan, adding, "Everything is transparent and if at all there is any damage to roads or other amenities, there is a three-year liability period and the contractor concerned will have to fix it.

Vice President of Textile and Garments Association who is also a trader at Avenue Road said that firstly, the project will not be completed in three weeks and secondly, the neighbouring roads like Tagaru Pete, Bandimot roads should be upgraded or else Avenue Road area will be flooded with water and infrastructure will go for a toss.

Expressing doubts over the project, Ashish Verma, Professor, Transportation System Engineering and Convenor, IISc, said,"The Smart City's goal was deviated. The latest survey (Global Livability Index) shows Bengaluru scoring poor while the Smart City project was still on and completed in many areas. The core issue or key parameter of the city remains mobility which is still not addressed."

20 streets upgraded at cost of Rs 224.69 crore

According to documents, 20 streets with road length of 16.08 km were upgraded at a cost of Rs 224.69 crore under seven packages in Phase A and 12 streets with road length measuring 11.75 km were upgraded at a cost of Rs 156.10 crore in six packages under Phase B.

1.8 lakh street vendors to get loans SVANidhi

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE Bruhath Bengaluru Mahanagar Palike (BBMP) on Thursday said that 1.8 lakh street vendors will be given loans under Pradhan Mantri Street Vendor's Atmanirbhar Nidhi (SVANidhi) scheme.

Ram Prasath Manohar, BBMP special commissioner (Estates), said the Palike's social welfare branch will open counters at City Market where the vendors can get loans on the spot and more than 500 vendors will be given the loans next Wednesday. The scheme was launched on June 1, 2020 by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs to help street vendors, who were impacted by the pandemic, to resume their livelihood.

The scheme intends to provide collateral-free working capital loans up to Rs 10,000 for one-year to approximately 2 lakh street vendors, the special commissioner added.

On allegations against some contractors that they did not pay GST to the BBMP, the special commissioner said he has already written a letter to the finance department to look into the matter.

Despite WFH, city leads in office market

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BENGALURU has led the way in absorption of offices and even completion of new office spaces, despite work from home arrangements due to the pandemic, followed by Hyderabad.

The hybrid work model was seen to be a preferred mode of work, co-working spaces initially used by startups and freelancers are now being used by big companies.

In FY 2021, approximately 30 companies hired 3.6 lakh freshers, out of which India's top 5 tech companies (TCS, Infosys, Cognizant, HCL Tech, and Tech Mahindra) hired 2.3 lakh freshers. This alone translated into the absorption of over 18.5 million sqft of office space in India.

From the worst contraction of 24.5 per cent recorded in the history of the Indian economy in 2020, to GDP growth of 4.1 per cent in the first quarter of 2022, inflation reaching double figures and approximately $2.5 billion institutional investment in real estate, the report has highlighted all such trends.

Vestian, in association with the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI), released the report on Thursday. It is based on market trends observed in seven major cities, including Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Chennai, Pune, Kolkata, Mumbai and NCR.

Dr Shrinivas Rao, FRICS, CEO, Vestian, said, "This report aims to provide an insight into the various facets that emerged during the pandemic. It impacted occupier expectations and consequently led to a shift in market dynamics, it is imperative to understand the opportunities presented in the new environment. Newer cogs such as proptech, ESG implementation and policy changes have emerged on the real estate scene and harbour potential to take the sector to the next level."

MetroRide e-autos complete 5 lakh rides in city

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

METRORIDE, the electric auto service which provides first- and last-mile connectivity exclusively for Namma Metro customers for a minimum ferry rate of Rs 10, completed a milestone of 5 lakh rides in Bengaluru. It began operations 18 months ago at Yelachenahalli Metro Station on the Green Line, and is going steady at three other stations.

As a further convenience to passengers, it has proposed booking of Metro tickets along with auto fare on its app, as is presently being trialled with Hyderabad Metro.

The app-based service, with 45 e-autos at its disposal, is available for commuters at Yelachenahalli, Konanakunte Cross and Indiranagar stations. Launched just a few months before the pandemic hit the country, these light blue autos transport 1,200 customers per day from Metro stations to pre-fixed points near their homes.

Chief Executive Officer and co-founder of MetroRide Girish Nagpal had a detailed discussion with Bangalore

MetroRide autos provide first and last mile connectivity between Metro stations

Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) Managing Director Anjum Parwez recently. Nagpal told TNIE, "We have proposed integration of the two modes of transport on our app. Topping up Metro cards and payment of auto fare can be done at one go, saving the customer time. It has been received favourably and we will hold talks with the IT department of BMRCL next."

The minimum fare of Rs 10 for the first 1.5km and Rs 5 per km thereafter rarely exceeds Rs 25, as customers are within the 4km range of any Metro station. "Our average booking per customer stands at Rs 18, and 83 per cent of our bookings is done by repeat customers," he added.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

08th July: Pisces, the historic sign of the moment, has long been seen as a sign of improving weather. One of my ancient texts claims, though, that, while the sign as a whole is cold and windy, the front is temperate, the middle moist and the end is hot. The northerly parts are windy and the southern watery. So, something for everyone, then!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
You usually act on the spur of the moment, and quite right too! If you have unfinished business to complete, waste no time, otherwise you'll find that the goal posts have moved. Next week may be too late, partly because other people may have changed their minds.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Information which has been postponed, news which has been kept secret, and dreams which have been long-forgotten, are soon to burst forth. You may be best advised to delay putting the finishing touches to personal plans until next week. That will give loved ones time to settle down.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
A delicate mixture of courage and conservatism suits you best at the moment. You have been happy to sail on uncharted waters, but by next week a sense of caution may return. Compare notes with close friends sooner rather than later and set aside some time this evening to pamper yourself.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Seldom has so much needed to be reviewed and reorganised, but arrangements should be complete very soon. Then you'll realise that certain home and family commitments are more time-consuming than you once thought. If you want to blame anyone, don't. Blame the stars instead!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Your emotional ties are being put to the test, and you may wonder if one particular commitment is really worth the grief. My advice would be to try to distinguish between genuine feelings of affection on the one hand and a need for security at any price on the other.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You're in a strong, decisive and determined state of mind. It's best to put other people first. Remember the occasions when family members have done you a good turn. There seems to be a change of mood during the day, most likely resulting in a more relaxed and generous attitude.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
There is no need to stifle your creativity or dampen your emotions. You might feel under the weather, but celestial relief will soon arrive in the form of beneficial lunar alignments, helping you to get back on your feet and turn the tables on a rival.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Whether you feel you have been let down at work, or prevented from attaining your wishes at home, you may recognise that such disappointments are not final, only temporary. You'll be back in the fray in no more than four weeks, ready to do your level best.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Adverse or challenging aspects indicate that you have experienced a personal upheaval lately. It may be quite true that someone hasn't been entirely fair, but there are only another two weeks to go before harsh words should be completely forgotten.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Given that your celestial alignments have indeed been most confusing, the patience and tolerance you have shown in dealing with a financial matter deserve congratulations. Recent expenditure however, may have been but a rehearsal for the real thing.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You do tend to take on rather too much, don't you? You may be wondering if you have set yourself an impossible task. If so, you have done right. The only way to get what you want and end up where you need to be, is to take on more than you can cope with!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You should reach a final solution over family finances and domestic spending today or over the next 3 days. Mercury and Mars are perfectly poised to fulfil your wishes. The real issues are personal: you need to understand that a partner's impatience or irritation is not really directed against you.

THERE'S ENOUGH EVIDENCE AGAINST ADGP, SAYS JUDGE

Asks CBI to submit report on Seemanth Singh's stint as Ballari SP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

QUOTING evidence which led him to make remarks against Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) ADGP Seemanth Kumar Singh, Justice HP Sandesh of the Karnataka High Court on Thursday passed an order that ample material available with the court reveals that Singh has not exercised his powers to protect the interests of the public. He has also not shown enthusiasm to protect the institution (ACB) by facilitating IAS officer and former Deputy Commissioner J Manjunath to approach court for relief, despite evidence to arrest him after his personal assistant was caught red-handed accepting a bribe of Rs 5 lakh.

Hearing the bail petition filed by Deputy Tahsildar PS Mahesh, personal assistant of Manjunath, Justice Sandesh also directed the CBI to produce the investigation report following the search conducted at the residence of Singh when he was Ballari Superintendent of Police, over allegations of collecting 'mamul' in relation to illegal mining, as quoted in records produced by the state government. If not produced, Justice Sandesh directed the CBI SP to be present before court the following Thursday.

Questioning the ACB counsel whether it is not the duty of the ADGP to protect the institution, being at the helm of affairs, Justice Sandesh said he has no personal grudge against Singh, who did not act against the IAS officer till the court pointed out glaring evidence about his involvement, and made serious observations. 'B-reports' (closure reports) were filed though the accused was caught red-handed in some cases. The ADGP has to adopt the same yardstick, whether he is a clerk or IAS officer, but he did not, the judge said.

I have no personal grudge against Singh, who did not act against the IAS officer till the court pointed out glaring evidence about his involvement, and made serious observations

Justice HP Sandesh

Taking serious exception to the ACB counsel's argument that the court, hearing the bail plea, has no jurisdiction to seek 'B-reports' filed by the ACB, and search warrants obtained and executed, Justice Sandesh cited several judgments of the Supreme Court which have emphasised that the court can monitor investigation if there are lapses on the part of the investigating agency.

Meanwhile, the counsel informed the court that 819 search warrants were obtained from court from the date of establishment of ACB in 2016 to 2021, and 28 of them were not executed. He also informed that 99 'B-reports' were filed before court. The judge questioned why the ACB had 'concealed' the details of 'B-reports' filed in 2022 till date. The counsel submitted that they have no intention of concealing details of 'B-reports' but have furnished year-wise data.

Singh moves HC against summons

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

ANTI-Corruption Bureau (ACB) ADGP Seemanth Kumar Singh on Thursday moved the Karnataka High Court, challenging summoning of his service records from the state government by Judge Sandesh, who is hearing bail pleas of the accused in the Deputy Commissioner's office bribery case. The single judge is also monitoring investigation by the ACB in the bribery case.

Alleging that the comments made by the judge are unwarranted, are denting his reputation and destroying the career, Singh prayed to court to direct the judge to refrain from considering his service records and also to restrain from making remarks against him.

Contending that the judge's statements are unsustainable in law and in violation of fundamental rights, Singh pleaded with court to direct the judge to consider the bail petition on merits.

He contended that the judge has nothing to do with his appointment as ADGP or his integrity.

If there is any allegation against him, the same has to be considered in accordance with law and not by the judge in the bail petition. The petition is likely to come up for hearing soon.

Pregnant woman quits job, harassed by boss

PRAVEEN KUMAR @Bengaluru:

A 23-year-old pregnant woman filed a police complaint, stating that she was attacked and sexually harassed by her employer and his associates, when she tendered her resignation. The victim, who is in her eighth month of pregnancy, wanted rest. Frustrated over her decision to quit the job immediately, the employer is alleged to have attacked her. Two other accused sexually harassed her, and threatened to rape her if she did not continue work. The incident happened at a silk manufacturing factory on the Bengaluru-Mysuru road, near Ramanagara town.

A case of sexual harassment along with other sections of IPC was registered against the accused. The woman and her husband are alleged to have taken a loan from one of the accused, and had delayed returning the money. The accused are alleged to have forced the woman to clear the dues by working at the factory. Police are checking the veracity of the allegations before initiating action against the suspects.

The woman, a resident of Gandhipura, claims to have been attacked and sexually harassed on Monday, between 11am and 11.30am at Troopline, off the main road. Police did not reveal the names of the suspects as they have not yet arrested them. All three suspects are residents of Ramanagara.

The woman told TNIE that she had been attacked by the three men. "Despite knowing I am pregnant, the accused attacked me. They tore my clothes and one of them punched my stomach, after which I developed pain. My previous delivery was a Caesarean and doctors have advised me to be extra careful for my second delivery," she said.

"The case is still under investigation. No arrests have been made. There was some financial issue between her and the suspects, which is also being probed," said an officer who is part of investigations.

Health workers call off protest after minister's assurance to revise wages

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

MINISTER for Health and Family Welfare Dr K Sudhakar has assured that the State government will soon revise the wages of over 25,000 contractual and outsourced employees of the health department, National Health Mission and medical education department.

The employees withdrew their protest after the health minister's assurance. "We will resume our protest on July 15 if our demands are not met within three days," warned protesters' association president Vishwaradhya H Y.

Dr Sudhakar said the government is committed to protect the interests of all workers but there are some legal and technical difficulties in meeting certain demands. Hence it is difficult to make them permanent employees. However, I assure that all efforts will be made to increase the wages", he said.

BJP MLA says Gadkari's claims of NH-66 work not true

SUBHASH CHANDRA N S@ Karwar

ANKOLA-Karwar BJP MLA Rupali Naik has disputed Union Minister Nitin Gadkari's claim that the NH-66 road project is nearing completion, claiming that not even 50 per cent of the work has been completed. She also warned the company handling the project -- IRB -- of action and said she will stop toll collection unless they complete the work first.

Recently, Gadkari had taken to social media, stating that the road project connecting Uttara Kannada with Kundapur in Udupi district is nearing completion. The tweet, with a picture of the road, said it will be thrown open for commuters soon.

The matter came up when a section of the media on Thursday raised the issue of waterlogged roads with the MLA which triggered her outburst. "They have not completed much of the work. The company has just made roads wherever they have acquired the land. Wherever they can, they have built culverts. They have made the roads, but where are the service roads? How should the locals cross over to the other side? she asked.

"In many places, the work has not started. Pedestrians, normally rural people, will be hit badly due to this. They have not installed even a single streetlight," she alleged.

Pointing out that the firm is working with just a handful of labourers, she said the entire project is unscientific. "There are no drains all along the stretch. The water accumulated should be diverted. But the roads are waterlogged," she said.

On the question about the tweet by Gadkari, Rupali said the officials of the company have misled him. "I will write to him, explaining the ground reality," she said.

District Minister Kota Srinivasa Pujari said, "We will call a meeting of IRB and NHAI officials and the people concerned with the project and ensure that hurdles to the road project are cleared and the work is completed on time," he said. He said the meeting will be held on July 11.

Eye on polls, Siddu camp to keep text row on boil

Issue raised hackles in state; Cong leader's message to minorities clear

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Bengaluru

LEADER of the Opposition Siddaramaiah and his think-tank have zeroed in on the textbook revision row as a crucial issue which could impact the chances of the BJP and RSS in the assembly polls in Karnataka.

After protest by Vishwa Manava Krantikari Mahakavi Kuvempu Horata Samiti at Freedom Park in Bengaluru on June 18, another rally is planned on Primary and Secondary Education Minister B C Nagesh's home turf in Tiptur, which will culminate in a mega event on Sunday. Congress leaders and Siddaramaiah's sympathisers have been on a week-long padayatra to highlight the omissions and commissions of the textbook committee.

Siddaramaiah has raked up the issue as the Rohith Chakrathirtha Committee has allegedly committed unpardonable mistakes in revising the textbooks by insulting greats such as Dr B R Ambedkar, Basavanna, Kuvempu and others.

The issue spread like wildfire even to coastal Karnataka, with followers of reformer of the region Narayana Guru and poet Kayyara Kinhana Rai claiming that they were not given prominence in the textbooks.

As the next assembly elections are likely to witness an ideological battle, Siddaramaiah, in order to woo the minorities, has continued his tirade against the RSS. In this, he has found noted writer Devanuru Mahadeva's book 'RSS: Aala Mattu Agala' (Depth and Width) handy, as it is critical of the Sangh Parivar ideology. Siddaramaiah, who was all praise for Devanuru, has suggested that the masses must read it.

"If it is going to be a ideological clash, it will work only if secular parties come together to fight the BJP and RSS," remarked former MLA YSV Datta.

Interestingly, former chief minister H D Kumaraswamy, who didn't lag behind in attacking the RSS, has also been referring to Devanuru's book, sources told TNIE.

As the BJP is likely to fight the polls under collective leadership, with Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the lead, the issues of development, corruption and ideology are also likely to come to the fore. Foreseeing this, the Siddaramaiah camp is preparing to take the clash to its logical end by sending a clear message to the minorities as he will stand by them. Kumaraswamy is also making his own efforts in this direction, observed political pundits.

Cong camp rivalry spells trouble ahead of polls

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

DIFFERENCES between original Congress leaders and newcomers continue to dog the grand old party, and are likely to have an adverse impact on the selection of candidates for the 2023 elections.

The final objective report -- based on a sample survey of 224 assembly seats – by the party's election strategist for Karnataka Sunil Kanugolu, may turn unpleasant for the rival camps as safeguarding their supporters' interests would be paramount for the leaders, said a Congress veteran. KPCC president D K Shivakumar and Opposition leader Siddaramaiah would be under pressure to protect the interests of their loyalists and well-wishers.

Siddaramaiah held a meeting with former minister M R Seetharam, who was miffed after being denied an MLC nomination, and convinced him not to quit the party. He had also reportedly promised to give a ticket to Seetharam's son Raksha Ramaiah, who was recently made general secretary of the Indian Youth Congress. Many supporters of Siddaramaiah, who are actively involved in organising his 75th birthday bash at Davanagere on August 3, have similar expectations from him, a leader said.

On the other hand, Shivakumar and senior leaders H K Patil and B K Hariprasad visited former Union minister K H Muniyappa on Wednesday evening, as he was miffed over his detractors being inducted into the party by Siddaramaiah, in the presence of Rahul Gandhi in New Delhi recently. Former MLAs Dr M C Sudhakar of Chintamani and Kotturu Manjunath of Mulabagilu are longtime rivals of Muniyappa. As he was making a move towards the JDS, Shivakumar convinced the only SC (Left) prominent leader of the region to stay put.

According to sources, he has demanded that his detractors should not support the Congress, but fulfilling this demand could spell trouble for the party, as Siddaramaiah is likely to take up the issue with Rahul Gandhi.

The CM was speaking after inaugurating the 11th 'Strategic Electronic Summit- Defence and Aerospace' organised by the Electronic Industries Association of India in Bengaluru on Thursday.

He called upon entrepreneurs in the electronics R&D sector to make use of facilities given by the state government. He said Karnataka is in the forefront in R&D with over 400 such centres in Bengaluru. "We are the first state to have an exclusive aerospace and defence R&D policy. We have a separate semiconductor and renewable energy policy too. The new R&D policy will be approved in the next cabinet meeting," he said.

Further, the CM said the state wants to encourage research and innovation everywhere. "We will help them by giving various facilities, including incentives. My dream of Karnataka is not just about a livelihood producing state, I want my state to produce a good life for the future through R&D," he said.

Regarding land allotted for these centres, CM said about 2,000 acres have been reserved for defence production and another 1,000 acres for defence and aerospace manufacturing units. "We are ready to extend all help and cooperation for industrialists to set up their units here," Bommai said. He appreciated the role being played by DRDO in making India Atmanirbhar in defence production.

State govt to develop poet Sarvajna's birthplace

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

THE Karnataka government will develop poet Sarvajna's birthplace Abaluru in Haveri district, and the tombs of his as well as his parents. The decision was taken at a meeting of Sarvajna Kshetra Development Authority, chaired by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday.

The meeting also gave approval to the proposal of setting up a Sarvajna Study Centre at Hirekerur town in Haveri district. A sum of Rs 25 crore has been proposed and the CM instructed officials to submit the proposal for administrative approval.

The CM, who also chaired the Kudala Sangama Development Authority meeting, instructed the officials to submit revised estimates for the Basava International Centre according to the revised architectural design for approval.

There is a proposal before government to construct a museum at Kudala Sangama. "I want the first phase of the project to be completed by May next year," he said.

CM INVITES KOREAN FIRMS TO TECH SUMMIT, INVESTORS MEET

BENGALURU: Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday invited Korean firms to participate in the Bengaluru Tech Summit and Karnataka Global Investors Meet in November in a big way. The CM held discussions with a delegation of the Republic of Korea, led by its Ambassador to India Chang Jae-Bok. Strengthening relations between the Republic of Korea and Karnataka will boost the bilateral economy, Bommai said. Pointing out that Karnataka is home to the highest number of international research and development centres and it is a global hub of technology-based industries, the CM said it will be of great mutual advantage economically if Korea and Karnataka join hands. He added that Karnataka is in the forefront of states attracting about 38 per cent of the total FDI flowing into the country. Chang Jae-bok said Korea is keen to further strengthen its economic relations with Karnataka. Over 40 Korean companies have a presence in the state and many startups are eager to invest in Karnataka, he said. ENS

PSI scam: HC directs CID to submit lab reports

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Thursday directed the Crime Investigation Department to submit regional forensic science laboratory reports and details of changes in OMR sheets of the candidates allegedly involved in the PSI recruitment scam.

Justice H P Sandesh passed the order while hearing pleas filed by some of the accused seeking bail. This was after the CID submitted, in a sealed cover, the progress of the investigation to the court.

Recording the submission of the CID, the court granted seven days to the agency to submit the details before adjourning the hearing to next Thursday.

After the court pulled up the investigating agency, the CID had arrested ADGP Amrit Paul recently. Meanwhile, the counsel of the CID submitted that they have submitted objections in all bail pleas.

Won't relax till accused brought to book: HM

Belagavi: "I won't relax till all the accused in the PSI recruitment scam are booked and the corrupt are put behind bars," said Home Minister Araga Jnanendra on Thursday. "The investigation into the scam is being carried on in a transparent and impartial manner. Congress leaders are frustrated over this, and are pressing for judicial inquiry. In the case of several scams reported during the Congress regime, neither FIRs nor chargesheets were filed. But now, the party is unnecessarily blaming our government when it is sincerely probing the case and the accused are being arrested," he said. ENS

BU issues syllabus for Kannada courses

DONNA EVA @ Bengaluru

AFTER much pressure, Bangalore University's Department of Kannada Studies has finally submitted a report on the National Education Policy (NEP) compliant syllabi for second semester Kannada courses.

With NEP rolling out phasewise, students would need to study the NEP syllabus for their second semesters. However, the department had delayed bringing out the textbooks, with even the syllabus still not formulated. Students and professors had appealed for at least the syllabus to be released, as students studying in Kannada were struggling without proper textbooks or a set syllabus.

Following much pressure, however, the department has finally submitted the approved syllabi and textbooks for the Kannada courses, though not to completion.

As of Thursday, the syllabi for the Kannada Bachelor of Arts (BA), Bachelor of Science (BSc) and Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) has been approved and the textbook sample has been made. However, the syllabus and textbook for Bachelor of Commerce (BCom) and Bachelor of Computer Science (BCA) will experience some delays.

"The syllabus for all three have come today. For BCom, it might take three to four days. However, BCA syllabus will take at least a week," said Dr Lakshminarayan A V, general secretary for Bangalore University College Kannada Teachers' Association (BUCKTA).

With the syllabus only just coming out, however, it is unsure by when the textbooks will be printed and supplied to students. Classes for second semester began at least a month ago, with students attending classes without a textbook or any kind of syllabus.

HC to Palaniswami: File counter-plea

Judge raises queries on status of coordinator/joint coordinator and other officials to call the meet

R SIVAKUMAR @Chennai

THE Madras High Court on Thursday raised questions on the legal competency of headquarters office-bearers of the AIADMK to convene the General Council (GC) meeting and adjourned the case seeking a stay on the July 11 GC meeting by a day. Justice Krishnan Ramasamy, before whom the suits filed by party leader O Panneerselvam and another functionary P Vairamuthu came up for hearing, asked senior counsel Vijay Narayan, appearing for Edappadi K Palaniswami, whether the posts of coordinator and joint coordinator have lapsed and do the headquarters office-bearers have the powers to convene GC meeting.

He also wanted to know the time gap needed between sending of invitation and the date of meeting, and who shall sign the invitation and what was the precedent. The judge ordered Palaniswami's counsel to file a counter with answers for these questions and adjourned the hearing to Friday.

Senior counsel Guru Krishnakumar, representing O Panneerselvam, said only the coordinator and joint coordinator have the powers to convene the meeting and the headquarters office-bearers, on whose name the unsigned invitation was sent, were an 'undefined body' without powers as per the bylaws of the party.

Vijay Narayan, however, contended that the GC meeting can be convened by headquarters office-bearers as 2,190 of 2,665 GC members have submitted signed memorandums demanding the meeting. Referring to the agenda of election of interim general secretary, Narayan said the democratic process within the party will have to go on, and added that the Supreme Court has 'expressly said' the meeting can be held.

Senior Counsel AK Sriram, appearing for Vairamuthu, questioned the validity of the invitation for the meeting. At the outset, the judge wondered as to what was left for him to decide when the Supreme Court had said the meeting can go ahead in accordance with the law.

Earlier in the day, in a shot in the arm for Palaniswami camp, a division bench of Justices M Duraiswamy and Sunder Mohan, who had restrained the June 23 general council from passing resolutions other than the 23 pre-decided ones, summarily dismissed the contempt petition filed by GC member M Shanmugam against Palaniswami and others for violation of the bench's order passed on the wee hours of June 23.

TRS MLA seeks answers on PM

ENS @Hyderabad

WHEN BJP sought answers to how many days Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao spent in his farmhouse? TRS leaders wanted to know the cost of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's costumes.

In response to the 88 Right To Information Act (RTI) queries raised by BJP state president Bandi Sanjay Kumar, ruling TRS MLA A Jeevan Reddy said that he wants answers for his 100 questions through RTI. Speaking to reporters here on Thursday, Reddy asked BJP leaders Why the Cental government failed to introduce the 'Women Reservation Bill' in the Parliament? The other questions posed by Reddy are: Did the Centre keep its assurances of providing 2 crore jobs per year? Did they bring back the black money to India?

Victim did not see daylight for 2 years

Mahima Bhandary, a counsellor at the helpline, said: "The woman was locked up inside a toilet-cum-shed since two years and she did not see daylight during the period. She was in a critical state. Some neighbours on observing that the woman did not come out of the house used to inquired with the couple about Girija's whereabouts. The couple lied to them each time either by saying said she was taking a bath or that she had stepped out of the house for some work". Mahima added, "After a fall in the verandah, Girija suffered injuries and could not move. The couple dumped her in the toilet without giving her any first aid and she remained in the same state for two years. The place was dirty and full of bad odour. However, with the help of police, we rescued her."

The police said the daughter-in-law used to abuse and tell the victim to eat mud and gave her food barely once a day. The victim's son works as a daily wage worker and he never questioned his wife on what she was doing. After rescuing her, the woman was taken to Wenlock Hospital on Thursday. Her son came to the hospital, created a scene and assured to take her back home. But the woman requested the counsellors to shift her to an ashram in Padil and refused to go back to her son's house. The police have registered a suo motu case against the accused and booked them under Sections 336 (endangering life or personal safety of others), 504 (intentionally insulting a person) and Section 24 of the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007.

RAIN FOR NEXT FIVE DAYS, RED ALERT ALONG COAST

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

WET weather is likely to continue over Bengaluru and most parts of Karnataka for the next five days, says a forecast by the India Meteorological Department (IMD). There was continuous rain for the better part of Thursday.

Weathermen have forecast widespread rainfall for Bengaluru and parts of south interior Karnataka, and also issued alerts for other parts of Karnataka -- red alert (rainfall above 204.5mm) for Dakshina Kannada, Udupi and Uttara Kannada for the next two days; orange alert (115.6- 204.5mm rain) over Dakshina Kannada, Udupi and Uttara Kannada for July 10 and 11.

IMD-Bengaluru officials said: "While Bengaluru will experience widespread light to moderate rainfall for the next five days, other areas will experience heavy to extremely heavy rainfall. This is because of the formation of systems, and also because the southwest monsoon is active across the region."

There is an east-west sheer zone along 19 degree north latitude, seen at 3.1km above mean sea level across north peninsular India.

₹5 lakh compensation for kin of landslide victims

AT around 6.45 pm on Wednesday, a nearby hillock caved in, crushing the house where the labourers were staying. In a rescue operation that was undertaken from 7.30 pm to 11.30 pm, fire and emergency personnel found one labourer dead and the other injured labourers were shifted to a hospital. Dakshina Kannada SP Rishikesh Sonawane oversaw the rescue operation.

Bantwal Rural Police has booked a case under IPC Sections 337 and 304 (A) against Benedicta Carlo based on a complaint filed by Panjikallu Gram Panchayat village accountant (VA) Kumar T C. According to the complaint, Carlo rang up the panchayat on July 5 to inform about a landslide in her plantation following which the VA conducted a spot inspection and told her to move the labourers put up in the old house to a safer place. Again on July 6, when the region was witnessing heavy rain, Kumar said he called Carlo and reminded her to shift the labourers. However, she allegedly ignored it which resulted in the death of the three the very next day. A car and a bike were also damaged in the incident.

District Minister V Sunil Kumar said the government has decided to give Rs 5 lakh compensation to the kin of the deceased.

DELHI IDEA FOR EYES IN CLASSES BUSTS PRIVACY

CCTV cameras in classrooms. However noble the aim is, it is nothing but surveillance. It is an authoritarian term that preaches control and regulates human behaviour. The Delhi government proposes to introduce live cameras in the classrooms in government schools. Consenting parents can get a live relay to see how their wards 'behave' in class and how teachers teach. It seems so cosy and innocent, but it is not. Classroom surveillance not only robs students of privacy but also mentally unsettles them and teachers both as they feel so many eyes watching them intently and constantly. What if parents, best intentions in mind, want to suggest improvements?

A school is a school because teachers run it, not parents. Parent-teacher meetings are the only occasions when mothers and fathers can discuss what wards are up to. If parents can see all that happens in class, schools can turn into arenas for parental litigation. Factors that divide society can find their way into classrooms if, say, a parent wonders why students of different castes or communities share a bench.

We already live in times when young students get cruel ideas like refusing meals prepared by the cook on the grounds of caste. Imagine the mayhem when cameras go live: What if students and teachers 'act' out their roles for the cameras and be on their 'best behaviour'? The feed is live, but reel and not necessarily real. Will the cameras encourage a teacher-student nexus to fool the watching parent?

This may be new to India but common in both the democratic West and authoritarian China. In the latter, cameras have even entered people's homes. In the US and the UK, the cameras came in to monitor mask compliance during the Covid lockdown. The masks are gone, but the cameras remain. Now it is about students' security. But their cameras which use face-recognition technology can do more than detect guns. They can collect personal data. That is a breach of privacy. There is always the danger of the data—live feed as in the case of the Delhi government proposal—being manipulated, misused or misinterpreted. By the way, does the Delhi government know how many parents are tech savvy to watch the expensive life feed?

CELEB DRIVE FOR MISSION DAKSHIN

In South India, we like our celebrities. They are revered, worshipped in temples, and made chief ministers too. And the BJP perhaps underlined this characteristic while choosing the celebrities for nomination as members of Rajya Sabha. Each of the four nominees is a living legend. Ilaiyaraaja from Tamil Nadu is a virtuoso music composer. Kerala's Payyoli Express, P T Usha, is the queen of the Indian track. Karnataka's Veerendra Heggade is a renowned philanthropist and Dharmasthala administrator. Telangana's K V Vijayendra Prasad is a leading story writer. He gained iconic status for Bahubali and the historical blockbuster, RRR, both directed by his son, Rajamouli. Born in Andhra Pradesh and living in Hyderabad, Prasad belongs to both states.

The nominations send two messages to the South. First, genuine legends will represent their respective states in the upper house of Parliament. Two, the stature of the nominees tends to dismiss any notion that the choices were merely political. Three, any credit for the nominations goes to the BJP. Lastly, that the BJP neglects no social class anywhere in the country. If that serves the party's political purpose, so be it. In any case, it is seriously engaged in expanding its presence in South India. It is at present largely confined to Karnataka and Puducherry where it is part of a coalition government.

It is a coincidence that the recent national executive of the BJP held in Hyderabad discussed this issue as part of its 'Mission Dakshin' (Mission South). The party's pan-India presence is just short of a foothold in the South. The nominations may be the ideal launch pad for the BJP's multi-fold outreach, especially in Telangana, Andhra Pradesh and Karnataka which face assembly elections before 2024.

Like in India, elsewhere in the world too, a conjunction of the virus and extreme wet weather is taking place. Locust attacks and cyclones are damaging economies

CLIMATE CHANGE AND COVID: DOUBLE JEOPARDY

DR K SRINATH REDDY

Cardiologist and epidemiologist and President, Public Health Foundation of India

SOUMYADIP SINHA

In May 2020, cyclone Amphan unleashed its fury on West Bengal, Odisha and Bangladesh. The Sundarbans delta was especially badly hit. At that time, India and Bangladesh were in lockdown with Covid-19 having acquired pandemic proportions and been declared a global public health emergency.

The pandemic had already affected livelihoods when the cyclone arrived to destroy natural resources. Access to even easily available resources was greatly restricted by the impaired human mobility caused by both the pandemic and the cyclone. Persons displaced by the cyclone also risked being infected by the SARS-CoV-2 virus as they huddled together with other evacuees in crowded shelters.

Elsewhere in the world too, a similar calamitous conjunction of the virus and extreme wet weather was taking place. In East Africa, vast hordes of locusts swarmed over the fields. Evoking comparison with the Biblical plague, they were linked to the warm seas which generated extreme wet weather that is highly suitable for the proliferation of locusts. In the Pacific islands, a category 5 cyclone of April 2020 colluded with the pandemic to damage the tourism-dependant economies of those islands. All of these were effects of climate change with global warming.

A recent report by the United Nations Office for Disaster Risk Reduction (UNDRR, 2022) describes how climate change and pandemics are combining to severely threaten human security. Providing global narratives of the threats posed by this dangerous duo, the report declares that "the climate emergency and the systemic impacts of the Covid-19 pandemic point to a new reality".

That self-evident truth is that humanity does not have the luxury of time to deal with these two threats separately and sequentially. It is no mere coincidence that these two mainly anthropogenic disasters are simultaneously demonstrating their sinister strengths through the prolonged Covid pandemic and unprecedented levels of global temperature rise, noted since 2020.

Climate change, with a fusillade of extreme weather events and high temperatures, leads to migration not only of humans, but also of both wild and domesticated animals. Viruses and other microbes can travel with them and find ample opportunities to find new susceptible hosts or even jump species. This can aggravate an existing epidemic or trigger a new one. As drought hits parched farm lands and people struggle to find drinking water, climate refugees will rise in numbers and epidemic risks too will rise alongside.

Covid-19 is not the only infectious disease whose threat is amplified by climate change. On a more regular basis, even after this pandemic subsides, we can expect a rise in vector-borne diseases. Diseases transmitted by mosquito bite will increase, as the insects can rise to higher altitudes and spread farther afield wherever the warmer weather suits them. Dengue already posts a threat to vast swathes of the global population, while malaria still piles up deaths in Africa and Asia. Add Chikungunya and Zika to that list of mosquito-borne diseases that will find global warming to their liking.

Climate change, with a fusillade of extreme weather events and high temperatures, leads to migration not only of humans, but also of both wild and domesticated animals. Viruses and other microbes can travel with them and find ample opportunities to find new susceptible hosts or even jump species. This can aggravate an existing epidemic or trigger a new one

India is already experiencing this spurt and spread of vector-borne diseases. New states in north and north-east India are becoming malaria-prone. Malaria is also spreading from central Indian states to the south-western coastal states of Maharashtra, Karnataka and Kerala.

Malaria would also have a longer transmission window, increasing from 7-9 months to 10-12 months in the north-eastern states. Dengue will have a shorter extrinsic incubation period. In Kerala, this period is now as short as 9-14 days and the state has been experiencing a rise in dengue cases even before the pandemic.

Climate change also brings with it a rise in water-borne diseases as extreme weather events and unseasonal rains can cause flooding and open the channels for cholera and other water borne microbes. The threat of other water-borne infections may be compounded by droughts where clean drinking water will become scarce, forcing people to drink contaminated water. Extreme weather events also disrupt health services and diminish the capacity to provide the raised level of health system response required in pandemic conditions. Agriculture and food systems will be affected by rising temperatures, with decrease in production of both staples and non-staples, while fruit and vegetables will ripen early and rot faster.

Nutrient quality of staples like rice and wheat will decrease, with a reduction in zinc, iron and protein levels. Since these are nutrients needed to promote innate immunity, vulnerability of people to infections will increase.

Pandemics like Covid disrupt agricultural and food industry operations, apart from disrupting national and global supply chains. Even food aid gets interrupted. Both Covid and climate change have contributed to growing global food insecurity in the past 30 months.

The clock is ticking fast on the climate front. Covid-19 has sounded the alarm that many dangers created or accelerated by human folly need a determined response to reduce their impact. Will we heed that warning, before it is too late?

VITTHALA CULT IN KARNATAKA AND MAHARASHTRA

R H KULKARNI

Professor and HOD, Art History, College of Fine Arts, Karnataka Chitrakala Parishath

Vitthala—Vithobha, Vitthu, Bittu— there are several names to address Sri Pandharpur Vitthala. The moment the name is uttered, the mind takes us to Pandharpur. The month of Ashadha is the holiest for the worship of Vitthala in the Maharashtrian town. Devotees from all over the world wish to be there on Shayani Ekadashi of the Ashadha month that falls in July. Vitthala is a synonym for devotion and emotion. He is the cult deity for the people of Maharashtra and the southern states, especially Karnataka.

Nearly all Haridasas have eulogised Vitthala and his consort Rukmani in their works. Sant Jnanadeva of Jnaneshwar, Sant Namdev, Sant Eknath, and Sant Tukaram in Maharashtra praised Vitthala through their compositions. In Karnataka, the Haridasa movement praised Vitthala as the primordial deity. Vitthala was not just a deity; he is also portrayed as a friend, son, mother and father. Narahari Tirtha, Vysa Tirtha, Purandhara Dasa, Kanaka Dasa, Vadiraja Tirtha and Vijaya Dasa, Jagannatha Dasa, Prasanna Venkata Dasa, Mahipati Dasa—the list of the religious bards is quite long. It appears Karnataka was the home of Vitthala. Sant Jnaneshwara in his composition mentions: "Kanadaho Vitthalu Karnataku, yenemajalavilevedhi"... which firmly attests to his origins.

The Vitthala cult may be traced to the 8–9th century CE. Vitthala is a combination of Vishnu and Krishna. Pandharpur, on the bank of Bhimarathi River (Bhima), became the abode of the lord. The temple was possibly built in the 11–12th century by Yadava of Devagiri. The idol of Vitthala could have been installed at that time. The temple, in the Hemadpanti (Phamsana) style, was built with soapstone. It is said that Hoysala king Vishnuvardhana also had a role in the construction of the temple. However, historical records of the temples clearly point to Yadava.

In Karnataka, Vitthala sculpture began to appear during the Kalyan Chalukya and Hoysala periods. The Vijayanagara period may be ascribed as the zenith of Vitthala worship and dedication of temples. The Vijayanagara kings built a temple for Vitthala in Hampi. It is perhaps the only temple in Hampi with rich decorations and grand architecture.

The iconography of Vitthala depicts Vishnu as a young boy standing in a frontal posture with both hands akimbo in the katyavalambita posture. The current image of Vitthala in Pandharpur stands on a brick pedestal. In both arms, he holds the chakra and the shankha. Vitthala has a simple bead garland that includes a Kaustubha Mani. His crown is conical in shape. The earlier form of the deity was perhaps seen in the period of the Guptas, Vakatakas and Kadambas between the 4th and 5th century CE.

Interestingly, the image of Vishnu in the Udaigiri cave near Vidisha in Madhya Pradesh also has a standing posture with frontal arms in the katyavalambita hasta. A good many examples of Vishnu are also found in the style of the Mathura school of sculpture. This posture became popular even during the Badami Chalukya period (6–8th century CE). Badami Chalukya artists employed the Vishnu image in Cave-3 and also in the Malegitti Sivalaya in Badami. In the post-Badami Chalukya period, the Vitthala concept grew in stature, and all images seen today show the deity in a standing posture with two arms on the waist.

The Hoysala period witnessed the prolific development of Vitthala sculptures. King Vishnuvardhana (1109–1142 CE), who was an ardent follower of Sri Vaishnavism, patronised the faith of Vitthala. The Vitthala sculpture has an evolved iconography and is depicted along with other sculptures such as Dashavatara, 24 forms of Vishnu and Saiva sculptures in many temples. An early example of Vitthala sculpture depicted on the walls of the Brahmeshwara temple at Kikkeri (Taluk K R Pete, Mandya District) dates back to 1170 CE. Another fine example of Vitthala is at Keshava Temple Nagalapura (12th Century CE) in Tumkur district. Lakshmi Narayana Temple in Hosaholalu, Panchalingeshwara Temple at Govindanahalli (in K R Pete Taluk, Mandya District), and Keshava Temple in Harnahalli also have examples of Vitthala sculpture. All these sculptures have identical iconographic images of Vitthala with minimum jewellery. Vitthala holds a shankha and a sack in his hands. The sack possibly represents the bag of flat rice Sudama gave to Krishna. In the post-Hoysala period, Vijayanagara kings not only patronised the Vitthala cult but also propagated it through the Haridasa Bhakti movement and the construction of temples. Several villages were renamed after Vitthala; as Vitthalapura in the Vijayanagara period. These temples also boast of pillars, walls, and even lintel beams of the temples with Vitthala sculptures.

The Vijaya Vitthala Temple in Hampi was built by Vijayanagara king Devaraya, between 1422–1446 CE. It was extended with the ratha and kalyana mantapa during the reign of Krishnadevaraya (1509–1529 CE). The Vitthala Temple of Hampi has musical pillars in the main hall. The lintel beams show Vitthala along with the king and queen, the latter two in a devotional pose. It is one of the finest representations of the Vitthala style of temple architecture.

Help southern districts

As you have rightly pointed out in your Editorial Investment focus in Tamil Nadu yields results (July 7), it is a matter of pride that the Tamil Nadu government, headed by Chief Minister M K Stalin, has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) worth ₹2.2 lakh crore. TN stands tall at third place in the ease of doing business. This shows the government's determined will and efforts to elevate the state as the most favoured to invest in and start new industries. However, the government should not only prioritise Chennai and make it an industrial hub. Instead, it should also focus on the lesser developed southern districts in the state. This will increase employment opportunities for educated youngsters.

LPG price hike

This is with reference to Cost of living goes up as LPG price hiked yet again (July 7). The price of LPG has been hiked again to ₹50. This is the eighth such hike this year. To mask their inefficiency, oil companies have been trying to hike prices without taking into consideration the huge burden on the common man. Citizens are already struggling due to the rise in prices of other essential items. And there is no increase in income. How can we deal with this? The Centre needs to act now and solve these problems.

The 5G threat

This is with reference to the exclusive article China's 5G network along LAC troubles Indian forces (July 7). China's booming 5G network along borders is a threat to our national security. Most people in villages cannot even avail the 3G and 4G networks; suddenly, China shows up with 5G. I feel like we've gone years behind. This issue needs to be on a priority list to tackle. The telecommunication arena is a battlefield today. Hopefully, DRDO can resolve this issue.

Rajya Sabha nominees

It is good to see that experts from other fields apart from politics are being nominated to the Rajya Sabha (like P T Usha, Ilaiyaraaja, etc). Although one may differ from the BJP's ideology and disagree with many policies, this is quite commendable. This enhances the credibility of Parliament. Other parties should learn from this

Pot and kettle

This is with reference to Corruption net snares IAS, IPS names (July 7). It is unfortunate that some IAS and IPS officers in Karnataka who ought to be role models to society have brought a bad name to their departments. People must become aware that this is not an excuse for the corrupt politicians and their criminal friends to use the proverb "the pot calling the kettle black"—we have honest officials in our country.

75-95 MILLION MORE ON VERGE OF EXTREME POVERTY

Covid alone killed 15 million across the world by 2021, says the Sustainable Development Goals Report 2022

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE climate crisis, the Covid-19 pandemic and an increased number of conflicts around the world could lead to an additional 75 million to 95 million people living in extreme poverty in 2022, compared with pre-pandemic projections, according to The Sustainable Development Goals Report 2022, released by the United Nations on Thursday.

The report finds that about 1 in 10 people worldwide are suffering from hunger and nearly 1 in 3 people lack regular access to adequate food. Immunisation coverage dropped for the first time in 10 years, and deaths from TB and malaria increased.

According to the latest data presented in the report, the Covid-19 pandemic has wreaked havoc across the Goals and its effects are still far from over. Global "excess deaths" directly and indirectly attributable to Covid-19 reached 15 million by the end of 2021.

"More than four years of progress in alleviating poverty have been wiped out, pushing 93 million more people worldwide into extreme poverty in 2020. An estimated 147 million children also missed more than half of their in-person instruction over the past two years," it said.

On the impact of climate change, the report finds energy-related CO2 emissions for 2021 rose by 6 per cent, reaching their highest level ever and completely wiping out pandemic-related declines.

"To avoid the worst effects of climate change, as set out in the Paris Agreement, global greenhouse gas emissions will need to peak before 2025 and then decline by 43 per cent by 2030, falling to net zero by 2050. Instead, under current voluntary national commitments to climate action, greenhouse gas emissions will rise by nearly 14 per cent over the next decade," it added.

The war in Ukraine is creating one of the largest refugee crises of modern time. As of May 2022, over 100 million people have been forcibly displaced from their homes. Projected global economic growth for 2022 was cut by 0.9 percentage point, due to the war in Ukraine and potential new waves of the pandemic.

Cost of conflicts and pandemic

The world is approaching the midway point of the pursuit to achieve the transformational 2030 Agenda set by the United Nations.

The latest progress report however indicates that the world is far off track meeting the Goals by 2030 and the alarming happenings have been noted from various parts of the world.

Temporary school closures during the Covid-19 crisis left 1.6 bn children unable to learn — 91 per cent of students worldwide — including nearly 369 mn who rely on school meals for daily nutrition.

There is requirement for wholesale transformation of education systems towards those that place student needs at the heart of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

MILLION

of students in low- and middle-income countries lack access to learning equipment and the Internet.

Before the pandemic, 17% of youth were out of primary and secondary school. From March 2020 to February 2022, schools were entirely or partially closed, on average, for 41 weeks, with 147 mn children missing half of their in-person instruction.

Further, 10 mn girls may be pushed into child marriage by the end of the decade.

Due to the pandemic, the world faces nothing less than an education crisis, amid budget cuts, student dropouts and teachers leaving the profession due to poor conditions, low salaries and unmanageable workloads.

An estimated 100 mn people have fallen into poverty, with 9 mn at risk of child labour by the end of 2022.

India, 5 others face fall in fossil fuel revenues

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

AS the global clean energy transition gathers pace, six emerging economies need to start adjusting their fiscal policies now to account for declining fossil fuel use-or risk a $278 billion gap in revenues by 2030, equivalent to the combined total government revenues of Indonesia and S. Africa in 2019, according to a new report by the International Institute for Sustainable Development.

The report spotlights heavy dependence on fossil fuel revenues in Brazil, Russia, India, Indonesia, China, and South Africa. It argues that this economic reliance puts these countries at risk of experiencing a substantial revenue gap over the next few decades, as the world transitions from fossil fuel-based energy systems to cleaner energies. With the economic outlook for fossil fuels looking increasingly bleak, the BRICS nations need to act now to de-carbonise and diversify their revenues or risk a revenue gap that could reverse progress on poverty eradication and economic development.

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

A day after China criticised Prime Minister, Narendra Modi for greeting Dalai Lama on his 87th birthday, External Affairs Minister (EAM) S Jaishankar met China's Foreign Affairs minister Wang Yi in Bali on the sidelines of the G20 Foreign Ministers Meeting. "Began my day in Bali by meeting FM Wang Yi of China. Discussion lasted one hour. Focused on specific outstanding issues in our bilateral relationship pertaining to the border situation. Also spoke about other matters, including students and flights," Jaishankar said in a tweet.

The two sides discussed resolving the border standoff that began in April 2020.

"The EAM called for an early resolution of all the outstanding issues along the LAC in Eastern Ladakh. Recalling the disengagement achieved in some friction areas, he reiterated the need to sustain the momentum to complete disengagement from all the remaining areas to restore peace and tranquility in the border areas," a statement released by the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) said.

Jaishankar reiterated that India-China relationship is best served by observing the three mutuals — mutual respect, mutual sensitivity and mutual interests.

The last diplomatic level talks under the Working Mechanism for Consultation and Coordination on China-India Border Affairs (WMCC) took place on May 31, 2022.

Wang said that since March this year, China and India have maintained communication and exchanges, effectively managed differences, and the bilateral relations have generally "shown a momentum of recovery." China and India, he said, share common interests and similar legitimate claims.

On the bilateral issues, Wang said the two countries should take practical actions to implement the important consensus of the leaders of the two countries that "the two countries are not each other's threats, but cooperation partners and development opportunities." He also said the two countries should push for the early return of the bilateral relations to the right track and light up the bright future of the relations together. China and India, Wang said, share common interests and similar legitimate claims, state-run Xinhua news agency reported, quoting a press release on the talks issued by the Chinese Foreign Ministry here.

Apparently referring to independent stand struck by both the countries on the Ukraine issue, Wang said as the world is undergoing profound changes unseen in a century, major countries like China and India will definitely not go with the flow but are destined to uphold strategic determination, achieve their respective development and revitalisation in accordance with the established goals, and make greater contributions to the future of mankind.

Vivo sent ₹62K-cr to China to avoid taxes: ED

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

CHINESE smartphone company Vivo India "illegally" transferred a whopping ₹62,476 crore to China in order to avoid paying taxes in India, the Enforcement Directorate (ED) said on Thursday.

The amount is nearly half of Vivo's turnover of ₹1,25,185 crore, said the probe agency as it claimed to have busted the mega money laundering racket involving some Chinese nationals and multiple Indian companies.

The ED did not divulge the time period of the transaction, but said it has blocked 119 bank accounts of the smartphone maker and its various entities having a gross balance of ₹465 crore, including fixed deposit of ₹66 crore, and seized 2 kg gold bars and ₹73 lakh in cash.

The action has been taken following nationwide searches on July 5 at 48 locations belonging to Vivo Mobiles India Private Limited and its 23 associated companies, such as Grand Prospect International Communication Pvt Ltd (GPICPL).

"These (23) companies are found to have transferred huge amounts of funds to Vivo India. Further, out of the total sale proceeds of ₹1,25,185 crore, Vivo India remitted ₹62,476 crores. i.e, almost 50% of the turnover, out of India, mainly to China. These remittances were made in order to disclose huge losses in Indian incorporated companies to avoid payment of taxes in India," the ED said in a statement.

The agency alleged that Vivo employees, including some Chinese nationals, did not cooperate during the searches and tried to abscond and to remove or hide digital devices.

Reacting to the raids, China had on Thursday said it disrupts the normal business activities of the companies and damages the goodwill.

The spokesperson of the country's embassy in India, Wang Xiaojian, said, "The frequent investigation of Chinese companies by the Indian side not only disrupts the normal business activities of the companies and damages the goodwill of the companies."

India responded on Thursday saying Chinese companies operating in the country needed to follow the law of the land. External Affairs Ministry Spokesperson Arindam Bagchi said Indian authorities were taking steps in the case in accordance with the law of the land. "I do not see the need to make such comments," the MEA spokesperson added.

The Enforcement Directorate had filed an Enforcement Case Information Report, equivalent of an FIR, on February 3 after studying a Delhi Police FIR registered in December last year against Vivo's associate company GPICP.

CBI arrests Power Grid top executive, five Tata Projects officials for graft

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) has arrested Power Grid Corporation of India's Executive Director Bimlendu Shekhar Jha and five top officials of Tata Projects in an alleged bribery case to favour the private company in contracts and other works.

The accused were arrested after the agency carried out searches at 11 locations on July 6-7. During the raids, the agency recovered ₹93 lakh from the premises of Jha in Gurugram.

The Tata Projects executive who have been arrested were Desh Raj Pathak, Executive Vice-President & Head (Transmission & Distribution); RN Singh, Assistant Vice President and Business Head-Distribution; Nafeej Hussain Khan, RPM; Randheer Kumar Singh and Sandeep Kumar Dubey.

Jha, who was posted in Itanagar, had been under CBI surveillance after it received input that he was receiving bribes from the executives of Tata Projects and other companies for granting favours.

Tata Projects was given the contracts under World Bank-funded North Eastern Region Power System Improvement Project for improving power infrastructure in the region. The company was working in Sikkim and Arunachal Pradesh.

The agency claimed Jha was acting in pursuance of a criminal conspiracy extending favours to Tata Projects in work, including preparation of inflated bills, early clearing of bills and price variation clause, in return of illegal gratification.

Commenting on the involvement of the company's employees, a spokesperson of Tata Projects said: "We adhere to strong norms in all our business transactions and have zero tolerance to any compromise on the same. We would extend our complete support to the relevant authorities."

SC to hear Zubair plea on quashing FIR today

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court will hear the bail plea of Alt News co-founder Mohammed Zubair in connection with a case registered against him in Uttar Pradesh for allegedly outraging religious feelings on Friday. A vacation bench of Justices Indira Banerjee and JK Maheshwari said on Thursday the matter be listed on Friday subject to clearance from the Chief Justice of India.

Senior advocate Colin Gonsalves, appearing for Zubair, said his anticipatory bail was rejected by the Allahabad High Court and subsequently he was arrested. "There is a threat to his life as people out there are threatening him," he said while urging the court to list the matter urgently.

An FIR was lodged against Zubair in Sitapur district of UP under IPC section 295A (deliberate and malicious act intended to outrage religious feelings) and section 67 of the IT Act on a complaint by Hindu Sher Sena Sitapur district president Bhagwan Sharan on June 1.

Zubair challenged the Allahabad HC's refusal to quash an FIR registered against him for a tweet in which he allegedly called three Hindu religious leaders — Yati Narasinghanand Saraswati, Bajrang Muni and Anand Swaroop — 'hate mongers'.

Zubair's petition said it was a "new police strategy for registering FIRs in hate crime cases against the criminals as well as those monitoring and protesting hate crimes... This is done with the intention of stifling freedom of speech...".

Bullet train project chief Satish Agnihotri sacked

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE services of NHSRCL Managing Director Satish Agnihotri who was in charge of the government's prestigious bullet train project have been terminated, senior officials said on Thursday.

Rajendra Prasad, Director, Projects, National High Speed Rail Corporation Limited (NHSRCL) has been handed over the charge for three months, the officials said. Senior Railway officials said there were several allegations against Agnihotri, including misuse of official position and diverting funds in an unauthorised manner to a private company.

They said the decision to terminate the services of Agnihotri came following a June 2 Lokpal court order directing the CBI to probe charges of a "quid pro quo" deal allegedly struck by the former NHSRCL MD with a private company during his nine-year tenure as CMD of Rail Vikas Nigam Limited (RVNL).

The Lokpal court has directed the CBI to "ascertain whether any offence under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, is made out" against Agnihotri and to submit the probe report to the Lokpal office within six months or before December 12, 2022.

"The competent authority has approved the termination of office of Satish Agnihotri. He has been directed to be relieved with immediate effect," read the July 7 letter of the Railway Board, addressed to the company secretary of the NHSRCL. NHSRCL is a joint venture of the Government of India and participating states for implementing high-speed rail projects.

Omicron sub-variant BA.2.75 found in India: WHO

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

A new sub-lineage BA.2.75 of the Omicron variant of Covid-19 has been detected in countries like India and the World Health Organisation (WHO) is following this, Director-General Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus said on Thursday.

Dr N K Arora, chairperson of the Covid Working Group, National Technical Advisory Group on Immunisation (NTAGI), said that the Omicron sublineage has been found in India. "We are closely following its clinical and epidemiological behaviour," he told this newspaper.

BA.2.75 — the second generation of the BA.2 variants — has high transmissibility and is being said to be behind the recent spike in Covid-19 cases in the country. Officials said in India, BA.2.75, seem to have a limited circulation and the lineage has so far not been documented to have enhanced severity or the spread of the disease.

In his weekly media briefing, Ghebreyesus said, "On Covid-19, globally reported cases have increased nearly 30 per cent over the past two weeks. Four of six WHO subregions saw cases increase in the last week."

"In Europe and America, BA.4 and BA.5 are driving waves. In countries like India, a new sub-lineage of BA.2.75 has also been detected, which we're following," he said.

The WHO announcement came days after an Israeli scientist flagged the presence of BA.2.75 in India and how it has escape immunity.

WHO Chief Scientist Soumya Swaminathan said in a video posted on Twitter that there has been an emergence of a sub-variant called the BA.2.75 "first reported from India and then from about ten other countries."

She said there are still limited sequences available of the sub-variant to analyse, "but this sub-variant seems to have a few mutations on the receptor-binding domain of the spike protein. So obviously, that's a vital part of the virus that attaches itself to the human receptor.

"So we have to watch that. It's still too early to know if this sub-variant has properties of additional immune evasion or indeed of being more clinically severe. We don't know that. So we have to wait and see," she said.

WHO is tracking the sub-variant, and the WHO Technical Advisory Group on SARS-CoV-2 Virus Evolution (TAG-VE) is constantly looking at the data from around the world, she said.

'VARIANT REPORTED FROM 10 OTHER COUNTRIES'

WHO Chief Scientist Soumya Swaminathan said in a video posted on Twitter that there has been an emergence of a sub-variant called the BA.2.75 "first reported from India and then from about ten other countries". She said there are still limited sequences available of the sub-variant.

'Need to merge education with 21st century ideas'

PM urges experts to draw roadmap for New Education Policy

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

LAYING stress on result-oriented research supplemented with relevant data base and matching the global standards, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday exhorted India's educationists to lay a concrete roadmap to implement New Education Policy-2020. He urged them to work for modifying higher education in such a way that coming generations can quench their thirst for knowledge, pursue their interests and get prepared to take control of the country in future.

Flanked by Uttar Pradesh Governor Anandiben Patel and Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, Modi was speaking after inaugurating the three-day Akhil Bharatiya Shiksha Samagam (All India Education Convention) in Varanasi. The PM was on a day-long visit to his parliamentary constituency on Thursday.

The convention, in which 400 educationists are participating, has been organised by the Union Education Ministry along with the University Grants Commission and Banaras Hindu University. It is set to discuss the roadmap to implement the NEP to bring about substantial changes in higher education system.

While states like Tamil Nadu have opposed NEP-2020, saying it would impose Hindi on students, most BJP-ruled states, including UP, have adopted it. The Policy is recommendatory, and leaves it to the discretion of the state to accept it, reject it or bring about suitable changes.

Emphasising on 'lab-to-land' and 'land-to-lab' studies to make the research worthwhile, Modi said the aim of the NEP is to bring education out from the limits of narrow thought-process and to integrate it with the modern ideas of the 21st century.

"We just don't have to prepare youth with degrees, it is imperative to ensure that along with it, our education policy also contributes to the nation while preparing significant human resources to take the nation forward," he said.

> We just don't have to prepare youth with degrees, it is imperative to ensure that our education policy also contributes to the nation while preparing human resources to take the nation forward
> PM Narendra Modi

Referring to the handling of the pandemic, Modi said not only did the country recover rapidly from it but also joined the galaxy of one of the fastest growing economies of the world. "We are the world's third largest startup ecosystem," he observed. He also discussed the major infrastructural overhaul done in the education sector to prepare it for NEP, and cited the example of scores of medical, engineering and management colleges coming up in India, unlike the British era education policy which meant only government jobs.

Earlier in the day, during his first visit to Varanasi after the UP Assembly elections, Modi also inaugurated the Akshaya Patra Mid-Day Meal Kitchen that will have a capacity to prepare meals for one lakh students of state primary schools.

The PM concluded his visit by inaugurating 31 projects worth ₹558 crore and laying the foundation of 13 new development projects costing ₹1,220 crore, before addressing a public meeting at Sampurnanand Sports stadium.

Further jolt to Uddhav as 66 corporators join rival camp

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

MAHARASHTRA CM Eknath Shinde has started further weakening the Shiv Sena led by Uddhav Thackeray by inducting 66 party corporators from Thane Municipal Corporation into his camp. As many as 32 corporators from Navi Mumbai Municipal Corporation are also likely to join Shinde.

The induction of Thane Municipal Corporation is significant because Thane is where the Sena started its election victory in the civic polls in 1967 a year after it was founded as a political party. Thane has always been a Sena bastion. Shinde's stronghold is also Thane. Therefore, the joining of 66 Sena corporators to the Shinde camp is a big blow to Uddhav following a revolt by Sena MLAs.

Nandini Vichare is the only Sena corporator left with Uddhav. She is wife of the party's Lok Sabha MP Rajan Vichare who has been made the Sena chief whip in the Lok Sabha after party MP Bhavana Gawali was removed from the post.

In another development on Thursday, 32 Sena corporators are also likely to join Shinde. Besides Thane, Shinde seems to be damaging Uddhav in Mumbai and its adjoining suburban districts.

Sources say Shinde will soon carry out a bigger operation in Mumbai where several Sena corporators worried about their political future will join him. Four Sena MLAs from the area have already joined Shinde. These legislators have a big following in their constituencies. Shiv Sena Lok Sabha MP Rahul Shewale from Mumbai has already shown his inclination to join the BJP.

Shinde to expand Cabinet in 2 phases, decide portfolios post BJP brass nod

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mumbai

MAHARASHTRA Chief Minister Eknath Shinde has decided to expand his Cabinet in two phases, with some of the senior leaders being inducted in the first phase. Shinde and Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis are scheduled to meet Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Home Minister Amit Shah and BJP national president JP Nadda in Delhi to get their nod about the selected names.

"Presently, Eknath Shinde is in charge of all the 42 ministries. The Deputy CM also does not have any responsibility. Both the leaders will discuss the allocations of ministry between the two parties," a source said requesting anonymity.

The BJP is said to have agreed to take the departments that were handled by the Shiv Sena during their alliance government during 2014-2019. So the BJP is likely to get plump portfolios like home, finance, revenue and irrigation while the Shinde camp may get urban development, agriculture, industry, transport, etc.

"We had initially thought that the ministry allocations and expansion should be carried out once the Supreme Court order comes on July 11," the source said, adding, "But we have been facing a lot of challenges to run the administration. The sowing season is on, and many parts of the state are yet to receive satisfactory rainfall even as heavy rains may cause havoc in Mumbai and Konkan regions. Therefore, we need respective ministers in place to take quick decisions."

Meanwhile, the Eknath Shinde camp is witnessing a tug of war over the ministry allocations, with each leader expecting a portfolio. On the other hand, the BJP has 105 MLAs, in addition to those from small parties and independent MLAs being part of the government.

CM Soren unveils solar policy for Jharkhand

Chief Minister Hemant Soren rolled out the Jharkhand state solar policy 2022 aiming at generating 4,000 MW of solar energy by 2026-27. Besides being much cheaper, the solar energy generated in the state will pave the way for transition towards clean energy as that will prove to be a substitute, to a large extent, for thermal and hydro power dependence, which is increasing every day. According to Soren, the solar energy generated locally would immensely help villagers living in such areas in the state where power supply through transmission lines always poses a problem due to their difficult geographical locations. The policy also aims to install rooftop solar system on both government and private buildings for generating 250 MW of clean energy.

First bamboo plant to be set up at Netarhat

State's first bamboo-processing plant to be set up at Netarhat Jharkhand's first ever bamboo-processing plant is being set up at Netarhat in Latehar and is likely to be operational in the next three months. A MoU has been signed with the North East Cane and Bamboo Development Council (NECBDC) last month for promoting bamboo production and processing. Officials claimed that the government's decision of taking out bamboo from the list of forest produce will boost its cultivation and processing and that, in turn, will provide employment to the local tribal community.

BSF nabs 4 Pakistani fishermen, 10 boats

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Ahmedabad

An ambush party of the Border Security Force (BSF) Bhuj caught four Pakistani fishermen while they were entering the Indian territory through a water channel of Harami Nala near the Indo-Pak border in the Kutch district of Gujarat on Thursday. Ten fishing boats from the neighbouring country were also seized.

According to BSF officials, nothing suspicious was recovered from the fishing boats.

"A special ambush party of the BSF observed movement between border pillar number 1165 and 1166 while the fishermen were sneaking into the Indian territory," a BSF spokesperson told the media.

The incident comes after three Pakistani fishermen with nine Pakistani boats were apprehended by BSF in June. The BSF challenged the Pakistani infiltrators as they tried to escape. However, when they did not stop, the troops opened fire, and two fishermen sustained bullet injuries. A search operation was later conducted in the entire area.

In May, the BSF had seized nine Pakistan fishing boats near Harami Nala in Bhuj and caught three fishermen.

The authorities have barred Indian fishermen from entering the creek area, but Pakistani fishermen often enter the Indian side to catch fish. They flee to their side after spotting BSF patrol units.

The Harami Nala is a 22 km long marshy patch that is navigable most of the time.

Gujarat: Cong observer list shows Gehlot effect

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA
@ Ahmedabad

AHEAD of the Gujarat Assembly elections, the Congress has appointed observers to 26 Lok Sabha constituencies of the state, fielding 37 leaders from across the country, with Rajasthan getting the maximum participation.

Party leaders from Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, and Chhattisgarh have become the observers, a status that the party gives to its trusted leaders. Of the 37 observers, 23 are from Rajasthan, including 13 ministers and 10 MLAs, as per the party's notification on Wednesday.

These observers will submit their reports to the All India Congress Committee after interacting with leaders in 182 Assemblies.

Since Rajasthan and Chhattisgarh have Congress governments, observers from these states may be in a better position to offer suggestions to the Gujarat unit.

However, all the Rajasthan observers are said to be close to CM Ashok Gehlot, who has earlier been in charge of Gujarat.

Meanwhile, factionalism within the party is getting worse. The leadership is upset over Congress leaders wearing saffron scarves, and also with the performance of state Congress in-charge Raghu Sharma as many leaders and have joined BJP.

Over the last few days, the party has apparently held meetings in Delhi where national-level leaders have interacted with the state team.

Jhum cultivation reason?

A railway official blamed jhum cultivation for the recent incident. "Rainwater had got accumulated at the site, rendering the soil soft. That place is not a natural basin," he said, Locals, however, dismiss the claim, saying jhum cultivation is rare in the area which was an earthquake epicentre in 2016.

'Landslides can be curbed, not avoided'

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

IN the backdrop of the landslide in Manipur that left 48 people dead, a senior geologist of the Oil and Natural Gas Corporation said such incidents can be curbed but not avoided in the Northeast since it is an earthquake-prone area where soil and rocks get disturbed by constant geotectonic shift.

"We have loose soil here. The rocks are hard only in the deeper portions. So when it rains incessantly or heavily, chances are that the soil will erode," the geologist, who has worked in the region, said requesting anonymity. He said the incidents can be curbed through selective plantations and technology.

"To avoid such incidents where development projects are coming up, we must ensure maximum plantations. Only the plants with roots that can reach the sub-surface should be planted in consultations with experts," he said, adding that in Uttarakhand, which has hard rocks, the retaining walls should have steel nets to keep the earth stable.

Senior state government officials could not be reached for comment. After the disaster, Chief Minister N Biren Singh had said his government would ask the railways to re-examine the project considering the "soft" soil in the hilly areas.

A railway official denied the charges of faulty process during hill cutting. "When a hill is cut for a project, the angle and the slope need to be maintained. It was adhered to," he said.

THREE TMC WORKERS SHOT, HACKED TO DEATH IN BENGAL

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

THREE Trinamool Congress workers — a panchayat member and two booth presidents — were shot dead in Canning, South 24 Parganas on Thursday. Before escaping, the assailants hacked the victims with sharp weapons.

The police said the incident took place around 9 am when Swapan Majhi (35), the panchayat member, and two others, Bhoothnath Pramanik and Jhantu Majhi, in their 30s, were going to a local party office to attend a meeting about the preparations for the July 21 rally, an annual event that the TMC organises where CM Mamata Banerjee addresses a gathering.

The three were riding a motorbike when they were intercepted by a group of suspected assailants on a busy road. "They first shot Majhi. On seeing him being shot, the two others started running away. The attackers shot them from behind. All three deceased were hacked later to ensure they were dead," said a police officer. The police are yet to ascertain the motive.

Planned attack

They first shot Majhi. On seeing this, the two others started running. They were shot from behind. All three were hacked later to ensure they were dead

"It appears that Majhi was the main target. The others were killed for witnessing the crime," said the police, adding that they recovered empty cartridge shells and a crude bomb from the spot.

Local TMC leaders said Majhi apprehended an attack on him. "We had asked him to be careful," said a leader.

Canning is a TMC stronghold and has seen several conflicts between two factions of the party in the recent past.

Ajmer: Rajasthan cops under scanner in Khadim video case

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

THE role of the police is under the scanner in the case involving a khadim of the Ajmer Dargah threatening to kill Nupur Sharma for insulting Prophet Muhammad.

Salman Chishti was arrested soon after his video went viral. However, in another clip, a policeman escorting him is heard telling Chishti that he would be "saved if he admits he was drunk" when making the video. The clip involving the cop was purportedly made when the khadim was presented before a court.

The BJP has alleged that the cop's view reflects the appeasement policy of the Congress government, drawing a rejection from the latter that called the accusation as absurd.

Police officer Sandeep Saraswat involved in the "conversation" with Chishti was shunted out on Wednesday. Saraswat later said the video was "correct", but incomplete. Salman is a habitual criminal as well as a drug addict. "Arresting him from the Khadim locality was difficult. His house was raided late at night. We kept talking to him as he was brought to the police station. I had no evil intention," Saraswat apparently told his seniors.

'J&K sending message of love and peace'

SRINAGAR: Jammu and Kashmir is now sending a message of peace, unity and harmony to the world, Lt Governor Manoj Sinha said after Home Minister Amit Shah unveiled the 'Statue of Peace' of Swami Ramanujacharya in Srinagar via video conferencing on Thursday.

"I am confident that Jagadguru Ramanujacharya's life and message, emphasising peace, love, truth and equality of all human beings will continue to inspire people," he said.

The statue commemorates the connection of Ramajunacharya with Kashmir, Sinha said. "Efforts for establishing peace and progress of the society are not limited to any area, but it is a movement of the entire humanity. Jagadguru also travelled to Kashmir to fulfil this purpose," he said. ENS

What's next? Figuring out the next steps for 10

With Boris resigning, here is how the new leader will be elected

Conservative leadership contest

- Timetable to nominate his replacement will be set out next week
- Party grandees hope to conclude the two-stage contest before the party holds its annual conference in October
- If more than two candidates are left in the race, those with the least votes are eliminated
- In the one-on-one fight, the candidate with the most votes gets to lead the party and the government

LONDON

BORIS Johnson has caved in to a Conservative Party revolt after months of ethics scandals and resigned as party leader, but he remains Britain's prime minister as for now while a successor is chosen.

With British politics in turmoil, here's a look at what will happen next:

Why Boris resigned?

Johnson's resignation comes after he weathered numerous scandals. He survived a no-confidence vote last month. But recent revelations that Johnson knew about sexual misconduct allegations against a lawmaker before he promoted the man to a senior position in his government led to Johnson's resignation.

So is Johnson still PM?

Yes, for now. His resignation sparks a party contest to replace him as leader. All Conservative lawmakers are eligible to run, and party officials could open the nominations within hours.

After candidates have come forward, Conservative lawmakers vote in a series of elimination rounds. The candidate with the lowest number of votes drops out, and voting continues until there are two contenders left. The final two candidates will be put to a vote of the full party membership across the country—about 180,000 people by postal ballot. That process is expected to take several weeks, with the exact timetable up to the 1922 Committee that runs party elections.

The winner of the vote will become both Conservative leader and prime minister, without the need for a national election.

While a new leader is being chosen, will Johnson remain PM?

Johnson has resigned as party leader, but he is still prime minister until his successor is elected. His predecessor, Theresa May, remained in office for more than a month between announcing her resignation and the selection of Johnson as the new Tory leader. But many Conservatives say Johnson can't stay in office—he has many ministers to be able to govern.

When is UK's next national election?

The next election must be called by December 2024. But it could come sooner. Prime ministers with a majority in parliament can call snap elections at will. AP

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATES IN THE RACE FOR LEADERSHIP

LONDON

HERE are some candidates who could succeed Johnson as party leader and prime minister:

Rishi Sunak, Former Treasury Chief

Britain's first Hindu chancellor of the exchequer, his policies like dishing out billions of pounds to help businesses and workers, were generally well-received. But 'partygate' changed those fortunes. He has also come under heavy criticism for being slow to respond to Britain's severe cost-of-living crisis.

Nadhim Zahawi, Treasury Chief

Zahawi came to prominence as vaccine minister during the pandemic and was praised for overseeing Britain's pandemic vaccines rollout. But his private wealth has also drawn adverse attention.

Sajid Javid, Former Health Secretary

Javid had been health secretary since June 2021, leading the Covid-19 response. He earlier served as Treasury chief. He ran in the 2019 Conservative leadership election, but was eliminated in the fourth round and lost to Johnson.

Liz Truss, Foreign Secretary

As UK's chief diplomat, she got a frosty reception from her Russian counterpart, Sergey Lavrov. She is also the Britain's lead negotiator with the European Union on issues following Britain's exit from the bloc. AP

IndiGo restores salary of pilots, crew by 8%

Even after the increase, the salary of pilots and cabin crew will remain 16% lower than the pre-pandemic level

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ NewDelhi

BUDGET airline IndiGo on Thursday reinstated the salaries of its pilots and cabin crew by another 8% from August 1. Additionally, the airline will also reinstate layover and deadhead allowances for these employees from July 1.

It is also reinstates the work pattern for pilots, which would ensure that pilots earn more. However, there will be fewer leaves. Even after the increase, these pilots' pay will remain 16% lower than pre-Covid level. This decision comes days after a very large section of its cabin crew took mass sick leave to attend Air India's recruitment drive, resulting in major embarrassment for the airline as 55% of its flight delayed on Saturday. Earlier in April, IndiGo had reinstated the salaries of its pilots by 8% hike. However, it is yet to match salaries of the pre-covid level. The airline had introduced a 28% pay cut in May 2020 in an cost-cutting exercise after the COVID-19 pandemic halted flight movements. "We were able to reinstate 8% effective April 1, 2022, and had committed to you that an additional 6.5% would be implemented from November 1,2022, based on the environment. Subsequently, based on your feedback and enhanced stability in our commercial network, we were able to reinstate layover and deadlock allowances to pre-covid levels effective July 1, 2022," read an internal commune of IndiGo.

A few pilots of IndiGo TNIE spoke to were not elated by the 8% hike and said that the management should have matched the pre-covid salary as they are working more than ever.

IndiGo denies reports of in-flight smoke, engine shutdown incidents

India's largest carrier IndiGo on Thursday said there was no smoke in the cabin of Raipur to Indore flight on Tuesday (Jul 5) but 'mist was created' by heating, ventilation and air conditioning system due to humidity. It also denied that there was an in-flight shutdown of engines on its flights. "There have been statements made on in-flight shut down of engines on IndiGo flights. There have been no such incidents on our aircraft in the recent past," said the private airline, which operates more than half of domestic flights. According to the airline, these reports have been falsely propagated by entities with vested interests, to mislead customers and authorities IndiGo's statement of flight safety comes amid a large number of technical glitches reported by other airlines, especially SpiceJet. In the past three weeks, SpiceJet was involved in at least eight technical malfunctions. ENS

GST FAKE INVOICE

CBIC issues circular on penalty

MONIKA YADAV @ NewDelhi

THE Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs or CBIC on Wednesday issued clarifications on the applicability of GST demand and penalty for transactions involving fake invoices.

As per the circular, there have been several instances when registered individuals were found to have issued tax invoices without supplying any services or products to fraudulently claim input tax credit (ITC).

The tax department said it has received requests from the trade and field formations for clarification on the issues pertaining to demand and penalty provisions with regard to fake invoices.

"The government has clarified that in case of fake invoicing, no GST can be recovered from the supplier as no supply of goods/services was involved, however, penalty shall be leviable. Further, the recipient should not be penalised under different provisions of the GST law for the same offence, if penalty has already been levied on the recipient under one provision of GST law," Abhishek Jain, Partner, Indirect Tax, KPMG in India said. He added that with these clarifications the government has tried to ensure that the GST authorities do not go beyond the scope of law on discovery of such fraudulent instances.

According to the circular, if a registered person issues a tax invoice to another registered person without making any underlying supplies of goods, services or both, the transaction will not be considered as "supply". The person who issued the invoice may face penalty for issuing fake invoices. However, no penal action or tax will be applicable on the actual transaction under section 73 or 74 of the CGST act. Further, if a registered person issues a tax invoice to another, without any underlying supply of goods and services or both, and the latter then avails of ITC on it and also issues an invoice to his buyers so that he can use the ITC to pay off tax liabilities on the outward supply, then he will be held responsible for the demand and recovery of the ITC.

Rakesh Jhunjhunwala-backed Akasa Air will start commercial operations later this month as it received licence to spread wings

Akasa Air gets flying licence from DGCA

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ NewDelhi

RAKESH JHUNJHUNWALA-backed Akasa Air on Thursday received the air operator certificate (AOC) from aviation regulator DGCA. The airline said it will start commercial operations later this month.

"We are thankful to the Civil Aviation Ministry and the DGCA for their constructive guidance, active support and the highest levels of efficiency throughout the AOC process. We now look forward to opening our flights for sale, leading to the start of commercial operations by late July," said Vinay Dube, founder-chief executive officer of Akasa Air. The airline had taken delivery of its first Boeing 737 Max aircraft on June 21 and since then successfully conducted a number of proving flights under the supervision of DGCA (Directorate General of Civil Aviation) to receive AOC. According to the airline, it will commence operations with two aircraft and subsequently add planes to its fleet every month. By the end of fiscal 2022-23, the airline will have 18 aircraft and thereafter, will add 12-14 aircraft every 12 months. This will make up its order of 72 aircraft to be delivered over a period of 5 years, it said.

Govt earmarks ₹80K cr loans for states

PTI @ NewDelhi

THE Centre has earmarked ₹80,000 crore as interest-free loans for states undertaking capital works in the current fiscal.

In her 2022-23 Budget speech, finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman had announced the 'Special Assistance to States for Capital Investment' scheme under which total financial assistance of ₹1 lakh crore would be given to states in the form of 50-year interest-free loans for capital investment projects.

Issuing the guidelines for implementing the scheme, the finance ministry said ₹80,000 crore is reserved for capital works to be undertaken by the states.

To avail the benefit for investments made this fiscal, states will have to submit details like name of the project, capital outlay, completion period and its economic justification to the expenditure department of the Union finance ministry.

"States are required to submit capital works proposed to be taken up by them in 2022-23' to the Department of Expenditure for approval and release of funds," the expenditure department said in a letter dated April 6 sent to all state governments.Projects under PM Gati Shakti Master Plan will receive priority, it added.

The 'Special Assistance to States for Capital Investment' scheme also includes ₹5,000 crore interest-free loans which would be provided to incentivise states to undertake privatisation or disinvestment of state public sector enterprises and asset monetisation.

Tata Consumer to foray into alternative meat

SAMIKSHA GOEL @ NewDelhi

FMCG major Tata Consumer Products (TCP) is planning to launch alternative meat or alternative protein and South Indian spices blends this month.

In an interaction with The New Indian Express, Deepika Bhan, president, packaged foods at TCP India, told TNIE that the company will be launching alternative meat under the brand Tata Simply Better by the end of this month. "It is just a simple philosophy around food choices that consumers make - Whatever one plans to eat, there is a better way to eat it - because we know that the trend is increasing in the country. So alternative meat or all protein as we call it with Tata Simply Better is where we have innovated."

On the other hand, launch of South blends that the company is working on, Bhan says it is just borrowing from what's going to work in local cuisines, local flavours. "This is where we go on to understand what the Southern consumers' palette is and how we design super regional mixes to answer that palette."

Talking about the company's focus, Bhan mentions it is to strengthen its position in salt and build right distribution in rural areas. Overall the company had 19% rise in revenue and 8% volume growth in the foods business, Bhan notes. While Tata Sampann recorded 28% volume growth in FY22, poha grew north of 100%, the premium salt portfolio grew 27% in revenue and Rock salt recorded a growth of 82%. The company also had a market share gain of 400 bps in the salt portfolio overall.

Bhan also lays out a strategic plan for rural, saying the first point is to ensure building the right distribution. "Ensuring first of all that we're building the right physical reach for ourselves and the second thing is having a clear portfolio. The third point would be that even within those businesses, we're very focused on ensuring that the right price strategy is in place."

SALARY

2/3rd of blue collared staff earn less than ₹15K month

SAMIKSHA GOEL @ NewDelhi

OVER two-thirds of blue-collared employees earn less than ₹15,000 a month in India, according to a report released on Thursday. The study reveals the widening pay disparity between men and women, with the latter earning 19% less compared to their male colleagues.

Staff attendance & payroll management app Salarybox, in its report based on proprietary database of over a million employed workforce from more than 850 districts around the country, shows that less than 15% of the employee base earns in the range of ₹20,000-40,000 per month (on an average ₹25k). It calls for attention to the fact that a vast majority of Indians have difficulties securing even a livable wage, says the report. "Majority of firms pay wages below the minimum wage set by the Central Pay Commission (CPC), that is ₹18,000 per month." In addition to this, it says, females made ₹12,398 on average, which was 19% less than their male colleagues. The SalaryBox Research also finds that only 27% of the workforce is made up of women, whereas 73% of the workforce is made up of men. Nikhil Goel, CEO & Co-Founder of SalaryBox said, "While the headline employment/unemployment numbers get a lot of attention, another set of numbers that is equally significant — who gets paid how much — doesn't get nearly as much attention. It is high time that the companies bring in interventions that highlight this huge gap."

As power shortage looms large, govt plans to open 12 new mines this year

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ NewDelhi

Coal production

Currently, a total of 36 captive and commercial mines are under production. The ministry expects all these mines will significantly contribute to meet the coal demand

IN a bid to meet the coal demand, the coal ministry on Thursday said at least 12 more new mines will start production during the year. Currently, a total of 36 captive and commercial mines are under production. The ministry expects all these mines will significantly contribute to meet the coal demand in the country.

"Coal production achieved during the first quarter is 27.7 million tonne, which is 79 % higher than 15.5 million tonne produced during the same period in FY 2021-22," said the coal ministry in a statement.

As the coal shortage continues to haunt, the senior official of the coal ministry reviewed the production from coal blocks during the first quarter of FY 2022-23 on July 6 in the presence of project proponents. Ministry officials appreciated the efforts of coal blocks allottees in achieving such high growth and hopeful that target production of 32 million tonne from coal blocks during the second quarter of FY 2022-23 will be achieved.

"It was also noted with appreciation that two mines auctioned in 2021 under commercial auction reforms have become operational and produced 1.57 million tonne in the first quarter," said the coal ministry in a statement.

According to the official data, coal-based power generation increased by 26.58% to 95,880 million units in June. Coal-based power generation stood at 75,747 million units (MU) in the corresponding month of the previous fiscal.

"The overall power generation in June 2022 has been 17.73% higher than the power generated in June 2021." However on a sequential basis, coal-based power generation dropped by 2.77% in June compared to 98,609 MU in May this fiscal. Total power generation also dipped by 0.76% to 1,38,995 MU in June from 1,40,059 MU in May.

IBM buys data observability software Databand.ai

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

IBM on Thursday announced acquisition of data observability software Databand.ai, which helps organisations fix issues with their data, including errors, pipeline failures and poor quality.

The company did not disclose financial details, and the acquisition closed on June 27, 2022.

Databand.ai, which is headquartered in Tel Aviv, Israel, is IBM's fifth acquisition in 2022. It has acquired more than 25 companies since April 2020.

IBM says data observability is quickly emerging as a key solution for helping data teams and engineers better understand the health of data in their system and automatically identify, troubleshoot and resolve issues, like anomalies, breaking data changes or pipeline failures, in near real-time.

According to Gartner, every year poor data quality costs organisations an average $12.9 million. The acquisition of Databand.ai builds on IBM's research and development investments as well as strategic acquisitions in AI and automation.

"You can't protect what you can't see, and when the data platform is ineffective, everyone is impacted –including customers," said Josh Benamram, Co-Founder and CEO, Databand.ai.

Databand.ai is backed by leading VCs Accel, Blumberg Capital, Bessemer Venture Partners, Hyperwise and F2, among others.

Indian companies increase automation budgets: Report

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

INDIAN firms are showing keen interest in Bot deployments, as 67% of companies have already deployed over 300 bots across their enterprise organisation, compared to the rest of the world- 21%.

Also, automation budgets are drastically rising in India with over three-fourths of the firms planning to expand automation budgets in the next one year, says a report from Automation Anywhere. Organisations are using automation and intelligent assistants such as chatbots to help employees make better decisions. Due to the global pandemic, trade concerns and political conflicts have disrupted business operations, which has, in turn, exacerbated workforce issues, created supply shortages, and made demand forecasting and customer engagements more complex, said the report.

Increasing staff costs to trim IT firms' operating profitability

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

DUE to rising employee costs and travel expenses, operating profitability of IT services companies could fall back to the pre-pandemic low of 22-23% this fiscal compared with 24% in FY22.

According to a report by CRISIL, from about 19% growth in the last fiscal, the IT services sector will sustain 12-13% revenue growth this fiscal, mainly driven by digitalisation, strong demand for new-age technologies and depreciation in the rupee.

The sector's 19% growth in FY22 was the highest in the past 8 years, says the report, adding the higher growth in FY22 had come on the back of a modest uptick of 6% in fiscal 2021, which was hit by the first wave of the pandemic.

Aditya Jhaver, director, CRISIL Ratings, said, "With spending on cloud infrastructure expected to grow 1.5 times in the next three years and increasing adoption of new-age technologies such as cybersecurity and IoT, the digital share of revenue of Indian IT service players may cross 50% over the next 1-2 years (47% in fiscal 2022)."

IT sector growth

Sector's 19% growth in FY22 was the highest in past 8 yrs, says the report, adding the higher growth in FY22 had come on the back of a modest uptick of 6% in fiscal 2021

Analysts at ICICI Direct Research expect Infosys and HCL Tech to maintain their annual revenue and margin guidance.

While the largest IT services company Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) will declare its first quarter results on July 8, Wipro will declare results on July 20.

Infosys said it will present its results to the board of directors on July 24.

Acting IOA prez says focus on polls after CWG

INDRANEEL DAS @ Chennai

ACTING Indian Olympic Association (IOA) president Anil Khanna is a busy man nowadays. The Delhi High Court had directed him, as the senior vice president, to oversee the affairs of IOA as acting president after removing Narinder Batra from the top post. Though there have been murmurs within the IOA and the International Olympic Committee (IOC) has not vetted it as yet, Khanna feels everything should be fine. And of course, he said that everything is fine in IOA and there is no fighting between factions.

Not that Khanna has not seen such challenges before. As an official who has occupied posts like the treasurer and senior vice president in the IOA, he has been witness to such teething issues before sending teams abroad for Olympics, Asian and Commonwealth Games.

For Khanna priority is to send the team without a glitch this time too. There are things that need to be sorted out, particularly issuing visas to the athletes. "Right now we are concentrating on issues like granting visas to athletes and officials, and we want everything to be smooth," he said after the India team kit launch in New Delhi on Thursday. "For now, sending athletes to CWG is our priority. And then we will look into other things, including amending IOA constitution, following government guidelines and holding subsequent elections."

Though the IOA executive council has not met nor the IOC has vetted clearly, Khanna feels things would fall into place. "The IOC will wait and watch initially," he said. "We are part of the same family and things will get sorted out. There should be no problem." In fact, he said that Batra has assured cooperation to him.

Tejaswin rejection

On high-jumper Tejaswin Shankar's participation in CWG, Khanna said the Commonwealth Games Federation and the organising committee have not accepted his name. "They have said that only like-for-like replacement is permissible and since he is replacing a quarter-miler, his name will not be accepted now," he said. On the other hand, the Athletics Federation of India is saying that they are still trying to get him into the team.

215-athlete contingent for CWG

The Indian Olympic Association has named 108 men and 107 women for the Birmingham Commonwealth Games starting from July 28.

Tunisian is first woman from Africa to reach Major final in the Open era

AFP @ London

ONE Jabeur became the first African woman in the Open era to reach a Grand Slam singles final on Thursday when she defeated close friend Tatjana Maria in the Wimbledon semifinals.

The 27-year-old World No 2 from Tunisia triumphed 6-2, 3-6, 6-1.

"I'm a proud Tunisian woman standing here," said Jabeur, who was the first Arab player to make a Slam semifinal.

Before Thursday, South Africans Irene Bowder Peacock, at the 1927 French Open, and Renee Schuurman, in the 1959 Australian Open, were the only African women to have reached a Slam singles final.

Ons Jabeur

"It's a dream come true from years of work and sacrifice. I'm happy that's paid off and I'll continue for one more match," said Jabeur.

"Physically, Tatjana is a beast, she doesn't give up, I thought she would give up — her touch, her serve and everything on the court is impressive. I hope she's continues this way. Let's not play again I'm good for now."

"I know in Tunisia they are going crazy right now. I want to see more Arab and African players on the tour."

Jabeur coasted through the first set against mother-of-two Maria with breaks in the third and seventh games.

The Tunisian fired 15 winners to her opponent's six in the first set while not facing a single break point.

NADAL PULLS OUT OF SEMIFINALS

LONDON: Rafael Nadal has pulled out of the men's singles semifinal against Nick Kyrgios. Tests revealed that he had torn his abdominal muscle, something that was reported by Spanish media in the afternoon. He had picked up the issue in the earlier rounds but had aggravated during his five-set quarterfinal victory against Taylor Fritz on Wednesday. He did have a short practice session on Friday but he admitted that he had no option but to pull out. "I have a tear in the abdominal, the muscle. I was thinking about the whole day about the decision," he said during press conference late on Thursday night. "But it doesn't make sense to keep going. If I keep going, the injury will get worse and worse. I feel very sad to say that." He says he will likely miss a month so he could yet feature at the US Open. His withdrawal puts Kyrgios, the 27-year-old Australian, in his first Major final where he will await the winner of Novak Djokovic or Cameron Norrie. The 36-year-old, who has had to manage a whole host of injury problems in 2022, was on the cusp of doing something special. Having won both the Australian and the French Opens, he had a genuine chance of a rare Grand Slam, something nobody on the men's side had done since Rod Laver in 1969.

Nole favourite in semifinal

CAMERON NORRIE	NAME	NOVAK DJOKOVIC
26	AGE	35
12	RANK	3
0	SLAMS	20
0	H2H	1

NORRIE'S SOLID GAMEPLAY

The No 1-ranked Brit doesn't have a lot of big weapons. He's solid, knows his strengths and limitations and his work from the baseline is very good. He showed off some of those skills against David Goffin before prevailing in five sets.

SERB'S SHAKY MATCHES

The Serb is the favourite to advance but he hasn't been his usual self. He has dropped at least one set in three of his five matches. But he is reliably world-class at finding a way past obstacles and could rely on it again. The crowd, however, will be another sub plot.

RESULT WOMEN (SEMIFINALS)

ONS JABEUR BT TATJANA MARIA 6-2, 3-6, 6-1; ELENA RYBAKINA BT SIMONA HALEP 6-3, 6-3.

Kaur's good form continues

GOMESH S @ Chennai

SHORTLY after India's opening game of the 2022 ODI World Cup against Pakistan, doubts were raised about Harmanpreet Kaur's place in the XI. Since her fifty at the 2017 World Cup final, the all-rounder had averaged 27.78 over 33 games with just three 50-plus scores.

While there were signs of her coming good in 2021, injuries meant she hardly made an impact. However, since the Pakistan game in March, Harmanpreet has amassed 437 across nine innings at an average of 54.62 while striking at 87.75. Although she has excelled in every ODI World Cup since 2013, this time something seemed different.

Hardik Pandya scored a 33-ball 51, his first fifty in T20Is, against England | AFP

Hardik fifty takes India to 198/8

SOUTHAMPTON: Arshdeep Singh became the 99th player to make his T20I debut for India as captain Rohit Sharma handed the left-arm pacer his cap ahead of the first T20I against England in Southampton on Thursday. Having opted to bat first, India lost Ishan Kishan early, but Rohit (24 off 14 balls), Deepak Hooda (33 from 17 balls) and Suryakumar Yadav (19-ball 39) ensured that the momentum was on their side. Hardik Pandya was the star with the bat as he registered his maiden T20I half-century, scoring a 33-ball 51. With England keeping things tight in death overs, India scrapped their way to 198/8 in 20 overs. Chris Jordan was the pick of the bowlers for England. Brief scores: India 198/8 in 20 ovs (Hardik 51, Suryakumar 39, Hooda 33; Jordan 2/23) vs England.
